ACT I, SCENE II, THE PARK

(Rex and Ulla sit on a picnic blanket. The sound of a fly buzzing grows louder and louder. Rex takes whip out of bag and cracks it. The fly sound stops,)

ULLA

Rex put that away.

REX

Shucks sugar, I was just gettin rid of a pesky old fly.

ULLA

You're scaring people.

REX

(Yells out.)

Sorry I was just trying to help, didn't mean to scare you, ma'am.

ULLA

Rex, that is a man.

REX

But he's wearing makeup and lipstick. Say, he ain't one of the them funny boys, is he?

ULLA

If by funny you mean a homosexual, then yes, he is. And in Denmark, homosexuals are not discriminated against. We are tolerant.

REX

Ah heck, honey pie. I'm tolerant too. I don't care what those gay boys do in the privacy of a remote mountain area.

ULLA

We don't have mountains in Denmark, Rex.

REX

I just think that if they flaunt it in public, they oughta expect to get a lickin.

ULLA

Well Rex, you are religious, and remember what Jesus said about turning the other cheek and casting the first stone.

REX

That's what I'm saying. I want to cast the first stone.

ULLA

Have you actually read the Bible, Rex?
